RULES

You will not be allow to participate if you do not follow these rules:

- Santa Claus will officially arrive in downtown Roswell, leading the Electric Light Parade. No other "LIVE" Santas will be allowed in the parade, inanimate Santas are welcome.
- Do not use paper products or other flammable materials around lights.
- A fire extinguisher on board your float IS REQUIRED!
- All vehicles, floats and walking participants must be decorated with lights.
- Each entry needs a sign on the driver's side stating who they are, this helps with judging & title awards.
- No loud noises, including, but not limited to revving engines, burnouts, backfiring, offensively loud music.
- Only family friendly music. IE no lyrics that include profanity, drug references or violence...
- Absolutely no candy or other times can be thrown or dropped from the float or vehicles. Walkers handing out candy is allowed.
- Riders or walkers getting on and off of floats/vehicles is strictly prohibited.
- Absolutely NO STOPPING on the parade route - except for emergencies.

For more information, please call the MainStreet Roswell office at 575-914-8018

I hereby agree to follow all rules and regulations set forth by the MainStreet Roswell Promotion Parade Committee. Parade chairperson has the right to refuse any entry.
